"Human Hearts" will be presented this season with an entirely new scenic equipment. Mr. W. E. Nankville at great expense had photographic views for the new scenes taken in the hills of Arkansas in the locality where the scenes of the play are laid, so as to have the production as true to life as possible. These photographs were turned over to the scenic artist and the result has been most satisfactory. Mr. Nankville also commissioned the photographer to pick up anything in the way of properties that might lend local color to any of the scenes. The artist acquired an anvil and bellows from the village blacksmith shop that were once used by the prototype of Tom Logan, the hero of the play. "Human Hearts" is all its new scenic splendor, will be seen Wednesday evening, Sept. 26, at the opera house.
